

Mary Lockhart

Summary Ms. Lockhart provides consulting services to clients in the development and implementation of risk-based management processes and information management systems. Ms. Lockhart is a senior programmer experienced in the design, testing, and implementation of relational database applications, with a particular emphasis on networked and web-based systems. She is responsible for training managers and end-users in the use of the application software. She also develops documentation and training materials for the completed software and for compatible network configuration.

Employment May 2000-Present President, Paxian Corporation
Consultant

- Supporting consultant for the U.S. Department of Transportation, Office of Pipeline Safety (OPS) and the Common Ground Alliance. Supported all aspects of forming and nurturing a non-profit organization.
- Supporting consultant for the U.S. Department of Transportation, Office of Pipeline Safety (OPS) in the development and implementation of the web-based OPS Information System.

Education 1993-1995 Tusculum College Knoxville, TN
B.S. Applied Organizational Management

Major Projects Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration

Over six years experience in database development and maintenance.

Department of Energy

Development and implementation of risk-based resource management database systems.