

Anthony E. Tome, Jr.

Summary Mr. Tome has over 30 years experience in developing and managing the implementation of risk management and safety programs for high-risk industrial facilities and assisting government regulators to develop and implement risk-based regulatory programs.

Employment 2002 - Present Cyclacorp Corporation Alexandria, VA
Senior Consultant

- Support OPS and PHMSA personnel in performing Integrity Management Inspections of Hazardous Liquid and Gas operators
- Support PHMSA Western Region Office in activities related to the BP Exploration (Alaska) Corrective Action Order
- Supported the Louisiana DNR in performing Hazardous Liquid and Operator Qualification inspections

Education 1972-1975 University of Pittsburgh Pittsburgh, PA
Undergraduate and Graduate studies in Mechanical Engineering

1969-1972 University of Pittsburgh Pittsburgh, PA
B.S. Mathematics

Major Projects Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration

Over four years experience supporting various projects related to the development and implementation of a risk-based regulatory program for the pipeline industry. Supported multiple Hazardous Liquid and Gas Integrity Management Inspections. Participated in Protocol development and special projects in support of Integrity Management.

Department of Energy

Manager of various programs and organizations at Rocky Flats. Most recent position was as deputy manager of Waste Operations. Responsible for the operation of 7 waste storage facilities, managed a multi-million dollar budget for over 200 operations personnel and multiple support contractors, oversaw the design of a multi-million dollar Transuranic waste storage and transportation facility, and ensured that facilities operated within the safety limits imposed by their Final Safety Analysis Reports.