

Herbert M. Wilhite

Summary Mr. Wilhite has over 20 years experience in developing, implementing and managing risk management programs for high-risk industrial facilities and assisting government regulators to develop and implement risk-based regulatory, safety and communication programs.

Employment 1991 - Present Cycla Corporation Alexandria, VA
Senior Consultant

- Project Manager for Department of Transportation (DOT) and industry pilot project to evaluate the use of global positioning satellite (GPS) technology in one-call damage prevention programs
- Project and Task Manager for DOT and industry projects developing public safety and risk communication programs
- Supporting consultant in the development and implementation of risk-based management systems for DOT and Department of Energy (DOE)

Education 1987-1989 Tusculum College Knoxville, TN
summa cum laude
B.S. Applied Organizational Management

1979-1981 State Technical Institute Knoxville, TN
magna cum laude
A.S. Mechanical Engineering Technology

Major Projects Department of Transportation, Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration

Over 10 years experience as Project and Task manager for various projects for the development and implementation of industry standards and regulatory programs affecting public awareness and communications for the hazardous liquid and natural gas pipeline industry; as task leader in the study of damage prevention best practices and the development of damage prevention best practice recommendations; as Task Manager in the development and implementation of a variety of web-based information and communication systems; and as supporting consultant in the development and implementation of Integrity Management regulations for the pipeline industry.

Department of Energy

Supporting consultant in the development and implementation of risk-based resource management systems for prioritizing Environmental, Safety, and Health risks within DOE nuclear weapons and chemical processing facilities.